Post-APCCC Highlights from the Advanced Prostate Cancer Consensus Conference 2022

Welle 7 in Bern | on-site event

About this event

Participants of this event are experts and national opinion leaders in the field of prostate cancer from different specialities (urology, oncology, radiation oncology, nuclear medicine, pathology). They will prepare individual aspects discussed at APCCC 2022 and the topics will be discussed and voted on during the event.

Interesting and valuable discussions can be expected.

We are looking forward to welcoming in person at the Welle 7 in Bern.

Best regards your Steering Committee
