Highlights and Pivotal Studies from the ASCO Gastrointestinal Cancers Symposium

www.medtoday.ch

KKL Lucerne On-site

Dear colleagues

We are pleased to invite you to join us at the 10th ASCO GI in the Mountains on 13 February 2025 at the KKL Lucerne. We have carefully selected and prepared the most impactful studies and key updates from the ASCO Gastrointestinal Cancers Symposium in San Francisco, tailored for their relevance to Swiss clinical practice.

During this gathering, we will present landmark findings, conduct in-depth analyses, and facilitate interactive discussions on their implications for our field.

Each session will provide an opportunity for meaningful exchange and shared insights into the practice-changing advancements in gastrointestinal oncology.

We look forward to greeting you in Lucerne.

Kind regards
The Steering Committee

Dr. med. Daniel Helbling
Prof. Dr. med. Ulrich Güller
Prof. Dr. med. Dieter Köberle
