Exchange in Clinical
Hematology and Oncology

A few words from the scientific committee

Prof. Dr. Thomas Matthes

« I engage in the Swiss ECHO because continuous medical education is paramount in maintaining and guaranteeing excellence in the practice of medicine.»

PD Dr. Richard Cathomas

« I engage in the Swiss ECHO because interdisciplinary exchange of knowledge opens up your horizon and leads to improved patient management.»

Prof. Dr. Christoph Renner

« I engage in the Swiss ECHO because it connects different experts in the field of haematology and oncology.»

Prof. Dr. Olivia Pagani

« I engage in the Swiss ECHO because it provides the opportunity to share and exchange competence and knowledge in breast cancer within a small group of people. This format is particularly suitable to discuss the most relevant news and controversial topics in the field.»

Welcome!

Dear colleagues,

We kindly invite you to the 2nd Swiss ECHO – Exchange in Clinical Hematology & Oncology.

This multi-disciplinary educational event for all interested oncologists and hematologists, will take place in Bern at the Stade de Suisse, Bern on 3 September 2020 from 15:00 – 18:00.

Leveraging a mix of plenary, debate and small group sessions we will address the hot topics in Prostate Cancer, Breast Cancer as well as in Chronic Lymphocytic Leukemia, Multiple Myeloma and beyond. In order to emphasize our interdisciplinary approach we also selected highly interesting topics relevant for the daily practice of both of you, Hematologists and Oncologists. Herewith, we pursue the goal to combine important clinical data with practical relevance and an enhanced professional network for all of you.

Registration is free of charge.

We are looking forward to welcoming you at the second Swiss ECHO in Bern.

How to get there:

Stade de Suisse is located in the north of Bern, about 2.5 kilometres from the city centre and main railway station.

By car

The stadium can be reached by taking exit Wankdorf from either the A1 or A6. From there follow the signs to the stadium.

By public transport

There are various ways to get to the stadium by public transport. From the main railway station you can take tram 9 in the direction of Guisanplatz, which is also where you get off.

You can also take one of the various S-Bahn (commuter rail) lines to Bern Wankdorf station. Line S1, S2, S3, S4, S31, and S44 all connect with the station.

Finally, you can also take bus 20 to Wankdorf Bahnhof.
